IS PROUD TO HOST MONTREAL'S
PREMIERE OF

WORLD TO COME

BY
DANIEL ESKIN AND TREVOR MOWCHUN

THE PROJECTION WILL BE FOLLOWED BY A
DISCUSSION WITH THE CO-DIRECTOR TREVOR
MOWCHUN, MODERATED BY DR. RANDOLPH JORDAN,
FILM STUDIES PROFESSOR AT CONCORDIA'S MHSC

Experimenting with various levels of "cinematic consciousness," WORLD TO COME weaves an intricate tapestry of cryptic images, metaphorical montages and multi-layered soundscapes to express the psycho-geography of a disenchanted religious community startled from its ritual slumber. Based on actual events which still remain undisclosed, the film pursues a narrative-stylistic exploration of repressive conspiracies of silence, theological fantasies of justice, and the uncanny conditions under which the social fabric is sundered and restored again.

WINNER of the Silver Medal for Best Feature at ReelHeART International Film & Screenplay Festival.
